GOULD F. H. A. TO HELP GIRLS AT STEVEN'S TRAINING CENTER

As one of this year's projects, the Future Homemakers of America of Gould Academy are going to collect items which the girls of the Steven's Training Center of Hallowell, Maine can use. These girls are between the ages of 9 and 10. They are not juvenile delinquents, but girls whose parents couldn't take care of them or didn't want them. They don't know what it means to have nice clothes or personal things. The F. H. A. girls of Gould are going to collect items the Steven's girls can use, and give them to these girls at Christmas. The F. H. A. girls are asking the townspeople to help. If there is anything you have but don't want and need please donate it to these girls. Below are listed a few things which these girls could use: toilet soap, nail polish, light color, and polish remover; dusting powder; hair spray; deodorant; hair rollers, all sizes; head bands; fancy hair clips or barrettes; home permanent kits (non curl and very loose curl); lipsticks—light colors; shampoo; necklaces—suitable for girls 10-17; bracelets—suitable for girls 10-17; combs; nylon; record albums or single records; shower caps; head scarves; numbered paint sets; stationery and envelopes; mittens or warm gloves; Christmas wrapping paper, seals, ribbons, tags; batteries for transistor radios; stuffed animals suitable for girls 10-17; sleds and toboggans; lamps; musical instruments.

NEW BOOKS AT THE BETHEL LIBRARY

Adults—The Day That Would Not Die, by Walter Lord. "It began as another of Walter Lord's exciting re-creations of a dramatic moment in history—the crash of the Hindenburg, the story of the gas that erupted when Negro James Meredith enrolled in the University of Mississippi." Torrey, by Desmond Stewart and the Editors of Life.

At Play in the Fields of the Lord, by Pat Matthiessen. The principal characters are four fundamentalist missionaries and a soldier of fortune; the plot concerns their fanatic effort over the fate of a primitive and dangerous tribe of jungle Indians.

The Secret of the Simple Code, by Nancy Paulkner. The month of August became, for Paul, a time of great frustrations, confusion, and finally, triumph—as he and his crew found themselves on the trail of two desperate jewel thieves.

Key—Messiah's Christmas Eve, by Edna Miller.

MEIER - DAVIS

Mrs. Dorian May Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meier, of Leno, Mo., became the bride of Peter Seth Davis on Nov. 27th at Our Lady of the Pillar Church, St. Louis, Mo. The Rev. Valentine Bryan officiated at the 11 o'clock morning ceremony before an altar of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers. Afterwards guests attended a reception at Sunset Country Club.

The former Miss Meier and her father were preceded down the candlelighted aisle by Miss Geraldine Dotzler, Maid of Honor.

Mrs. Peter S. Davis

Among the bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Meier, a sister of the bride, Miss Karen Coster, Miss Christine Obermeyer, and Miss Carol Quislan.

The bride wore a gown of ivory tulle with a full skirt and a high collar. Her hair was styled in a short, wavy bob. She carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie.

All of the brides attendants wore their length dresses of Van Gogh blue velvet, empire with small puffed sleeves trimmed in embroidered French ribbon. Matching headbands and bouquets of pink roses and white orchids.

Mr. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis of Bethel, Maine, chose William Donohue, Randolph, Me., for his best man. Groomsmen were John Raski, Glasgow, Mont.; Robert Jr., Baton Rouge, La.; Wayne Steneypher, Wala Wala, Washington, all classmates; and Daniel Davis, a brother.

The newly wedded pair will live in St. Louis on their return from Florida. The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy and attended Maryville College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Gould Academy, and is attending Parks College, East St. Louis, Ill.

Quick Clean Laundromat

The light you see inside the new dryers while in operation is a purifying ultra-violet ray which insures you of a germ free wash. This is very important especially in public laundries because you don't know who used the machine ahead of you. Water has to be boiling to kill all germs and boiling water is too hot to do many fabrics. Also, it has to stay at boiling temperature many minutes to sterilize as much as the ultraviolet ray. These dryers are very economical to use. Try them and see for yourself.
